

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This literary, historical and touristic Journey in the footsteps of writer Jocelyne Saucier is a partnership between the Timmins Museum and the 101 Experiences Project

In memoriam

This Journey is dedicated to the memory of Nicole Guertin; her energy, her vision and her determination have been with us throughout the development of this project. Her strength and kindness continue to inspire us.

Acknowledgements

Obviously, this Journey could not have come to life without the collaboration of the writer Jocelyne Saucier and her publishers, namely Les Éditions XYZ inc., Coach House Books and Cormorant Books. Thank you so much for inspiring us and allowing us to share your work through this project.

A very special thank you to Karen Bachmann, director of the Timmins Museum for believing in this project and for having sponsored it with such enthusiasm and to the 101 Experiences team for their unwavering support: Lexi Wowk, Abby Cook, Rose-Lyne D'Aoust-Messier, Sylvie Lamothe, Agnieszka Cabon and Anna McPherson.

We would like to thank the Government of Ontario and the Ministry of Francophone Affairs for its invaluable financial contribution to the realization of this project through the Grants Program for Francophone Communities. We also thank Destination Northern Ontario, the City of Temiskaming Shores and the City of Timmins for their financial contribution and collaboration, as well as Jasmine Burji from Indigenous Tourism Ontario et Marie Lebel from Hearts University for their support to the project.

A huge thank you also to our many partners for their so important and generous contribution to the realization of this project:
